

Flesh Fire

By Greg Nies Sr., ThD

Flesh fire, how it runs wild, it takes ways and directions we know not,
it wipes life off the map,
flesh fire, how it runs wild.

Flesh fire, it takes life and destroys it very fast, it consumes all that it comes upon, so that it will not last.

Flesh fire, how it leads us astray, unless we can see it and stop it
we will lose our way.

There is a fire,
there is a fire in the house, the temple of man is burning out of control.

He is being consumed by the natural,
the smoke blinds him,
and his thoughts bind him, and he is being greatly deceived.

Flesh fire will change our lives from potential victory to a struggle all the way, unless we stop it quickly today.
