This Is a Day of New Beginnings...

There will be a shortage of electricity....

"For this is the day of New Beginnings. This is the New Year of the Lord. It is the year of turnaround.

- ◆ The enemy said that he has the edge and that he has taken over all, but I Am here to tell you that it is not so...
- ◆ This year you will hear of coming destruction that will not arrive.
- ◆ There will be wars and rumors of wars, and great fear will grip the people, causing riots.
- ◆ There will be a very cold and destructive winter. Snow and ice storms shall abound. In fact, there will be ice storms that will destroy the crops in the southern states and out west.
- ◆ In California, there will be mass unemployment, especially within the entertainment industry.
- ◆ Corruption shall be exposed across the land in all levels of government.
- ◆ Pornography will be found in all levels of government in the country. It will be abounding everywhere.
- ◆ In the east, there will be corruption found in all levels of government, especially in China, and it will cause revolts and riots.
- ◆ Many people will not be open to God and they will attempt to move God out of the public square. However, many will be opposed to it and challenge it.
- ◆ There will be high winds that will cause climatic change across the world. Dust storms will arise suddenly across the country and the world. Electricity shortages will arise in the major cities. Heating shortages will cause many to die from the cold.

- ◆ 2009 will be a year of great change in many people's lives.
- ◆ People will be brought to the edge of destruction but the Lord will arise for His people and save them.
- ◆ I see storms coming from the east. It is the dark cloud of anarchy being sent to destroy America. God will arise within His people and there will be prayer groups starting among the people. People will come together because of it.

There will be a cold and destructive winter...

- ◆ There will be starting from the grass roots, a spiritual move will occur among the young people. From this movement there will arise great young men and women dedicated to the Lord Jesus. They will be totally sold out to God and they will not be willing to settle, accept, or compromise for anything less than the fullness of Christ.
- ◆ There will be a rise of the Spirit of God, touching the young people with the anointing of God.
- ◆ A very large business will collapse suddenly and many thousands will be out of work. People will get sick of the union mentality that is destroying this country. The day of the union is over, and the day of their stranglehold on America is ending."
